MOTHERS DAY
FROM THE MAJOR'S PEN

Greetings friends:

Happy Mother's day to all of you Mom's today.

Have you been made feel special yet today?

Did you have breakfast in bed?

Perhaps you received a card, a present a phone call.

Or maybe you will receive such gifts later in the day.

It is nice to have special days such as these where we can reflect on the goodness of our Mothers and realize how blessed we are as Mothers.

So often in the busyness of life and all that we have to do its easy to feel as if we are taken for granted. (the cooking, the cleaning, the changing of diapers, the laundry, the chauffeuring...). You see we don't just give, we receive gifts everyday as Mothers. We are so blessed to see our children grow and mature. We invest ourselves in our children. We influence them for good. To see that growth is indeed a gift. To hear their laughter, the words "I love you", to see their smiles...even if their faces are dirty. Mothers are indeed blessed. We don't need this special day to know that but its great to have reminders.

God has special blessing and gifts for each and every day of our lives. Whether we are moms or not today this is a special day for us all. God has given us a wakeup call, our breath to breathe and the strength to move. He has given us people to love and love to receive. He has given us resources to help us do so much in the day. Every day is a gift from our Heavenly Father and He gives us people to love to receive. He has given us resources to help us do so much in the day. Every day is a gift from our Heavenly Father and He gives to us graciously everyday with no strings attached.

So not just today but every day remember that you are indeed blessed. For He supplies our every need.

From our beloved Major Karen Feltham (Late)
