Praying for the 2023 High Council

As many of you may already be aware, senior leaders from across the Salvation Army world will be meeting next week at Sunbury Court in London, England to spend time in prayer and discussion before engaging in the solemn task of electing the next international leader of The Salvation Army.

I am pleased to forward an email from IHQ (via THQ), providing us with information about the 2023 High Council, along with links, resources, and guidance as to how we can participate and be praying for the international leaders with this responsibility.

As part of the gatherings, there will be an opportunity for Salvationists and supporters to join the welcome gathering via live-stream with the High Council members on Saturday, May 20. At this worship service, the ministry of international leaders, General Brian Peddle and Commissioner Rosalie Peddle (World President of Women's Ministries) will also be honoured, as they prepare to enter retirement. The link for more information on this worship gathering is: <https://www.salvationarmy.org/ihq/high-council-2023-welcome>

Thank you for your prayers for this significant event and for sharing this 'Call to Prayer' at your ministry units.

Blessings,
Brenda Critch- Lieut-Colonel
Divisional Secretary for Spiritual Life Development- The Salvation Army Ontario Division
