All My Ways

Leader: O Lord, you have examined my heart and know everything about me. You know when I sit or when I stand.

Response: Lord, I am so habit bound, so earth bound, so work bound. My day moves from Children to school, then work at home, home to shopping, home to music lessons, home to the dentist, and home to church.

Leader: You always understand and know my every thought.

Response: Trivial task control my thoughts. The housework! The meals! The bills! The laundry! The Annoyances! The disappointments! The hurts!

Leader: You chart the path ahead of me and tell me where to stop and rest. Every moment you know where I am.

Response: I think of all my ways with my family, with my friends, and my neighbors, with those I meet casually in stores or on the bus, with those in authority, or with people who need my love and kindness and sometimes I fail to give it.

Leader: Lord, you know what I am going to say before I even say it.

Response: You know my haughty, quick temper, Lord. You know my words that hurt, my gossipy conversations, my foolish boasting, my sometimes critical tongue, when I should speak with love and understanding.

Leader: Lord, you both precede and follow me, and place your hand of blessing on my head.

Response: I have felt your hand upon me at the kitchen sink, at the stove, and the dinner table. I have felt your blessing at the telephone and my desk.

Leader: Lord search me and know my heart. Test me and know my thoughts. Point out anything that makes you sad, and lead me along the path of everlasting life.

Response: Then shall I go forth as a true representative of the Lord of Love. I shall go forth knowing that you are thinking about me constantly! I shall go forth with joy and a sense of your presence.
